

Environmental Policy

Caravel management and staff are committed to the purchase, use and disposal of environmentally friendly products whether on our own account or for that of our clients.

This will be achieved by ensuring where possible that products:

- Meet relevant environmental standards.
- Enable their use to comply with the Resource Management Act.
- Are energy efficient.
- Minimise the use of environmentally harmful materials.
- Be purchased from companies having a similar environmental policy.